

PIONEER DAY: SEPTEMBER 4, 1939

---

The record book of the Secretary of the Pioneer Days, Lois T. (Norton) Curtis, contains the following account of the Pioneer Day celebration in 1939:

The 24th annual Pioneer Day was observed with the usual good dinner. The entertainment was prepared Mr. & Mrs. W. E. Rude.

Sherman Smith & sons favored us with several instrumental selections. Instrumental music by Marjorie Rude. The old familiar song - The Church in the Wildwood was sung by the congregation. Pray W. E. Rude - Reading of minutes Welcome given by Mr Rude. Song America Recitation - Two Little Kittens Janet Terrel. Male Chorus - "Aint Going to Study War No more."

Reading - "Christ of the Andes" Address - Given by Dr Hess - On Americanism Giving us a picture of the two Symbols - The Cross & Swastika. The Cross stands for civilization Swastika stands for the overthrow of the civilization - Benediction.

---